WARREN'S
COUGH BALSAM

Has been found, by experience, to be the Best Remedy for the various Diseases of the Lungs and Throat, such as

Diphtheria,

Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Croup, Pain in the Side, Pleurisy, Pneumonia or Inflammation of the Lungs, and Whooping Cough.

IN these Complaints this Medicine has NO SUPERIOR, and while thus efficacious, it is perfectly SAFE to administer to persons of all ages.

At all times of the year this Balsam is found useful, especially in the Autumn, Winter and Spring; and many Colds and Coughs, which, if neglected, might prove fatal, may be CURED at once by a few doses of this invaluable remedy.

This Cough Balsam possesses the two-fold advantage of being at once valuable as curative and valuable as a preventive of all the diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Bronchia.

In DIPHTHERIA this Balsam has proved itself unexpectedly efficacious. When given at the first onset of the Pestilence it checks it at once; and in many cases, is believed by those who have used it, to have saved their lives.

In ASTHMA, however violent and distressing, this Balsam gives prompt relief.

In BRONCHITIS and PNEUMONIA it relieves the irritation, loosens the Cough, and promotes a favorable expectoration.

In CROUP its powers are almost magical. This insidious disease coming literally "like a thief in the night," may be speedily and effectually arrested by a few times of this Balsam.

In WHOOPING COUGH it moderates the paroxysms, prevents the disease from assuming its severest and dangerous form, and shortens it course.

Every family should keep it in the house, and thus avoid the dangerous delay occasioned by sending out for the medicine when needed for immediate use.

The best recommendation for a good medicine is found in its use. [illegible] the following certificate, from one who has used it, does not give you confidence in it, try one bottle for yourself, and you will be convinced. ☞ It will cost you but twenty-five cents; and may save you as many dollars in time and doctors' bills.

Letter from Col. Roberts.

FRIEND WARREN:—allow me to thank you for the bountiful supply of Cough Balsam received by me from you, through Lieut. Boynton. Many a sold[ier] in my command, as well as officer, has experienced the beneficial effects of the same. We all pronounce the article sound—so does our Brigade Surgeon, Dr Lyman, of Boston, to whom I presented a bottle.

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

From the Army of the Potomac—Confederate Steam Rams Building in England—Revelations of a Murderer—Arrest of the Governor of Ohio on a Charge of Kidnapping—Later News from Vicksburg—Failure of the Movement on Haines' Bluff—Preparations to Bombard Vicksburg—Decision Regarding "Greenbacks."

HEADQUARTERS Army of Potomac, }
April 3d. }

It was reported yesterday that a force of rebel cavalry was on the northern neck, in the vicinity of King George Court House, engaged in seizing supplies and enforcing the conscription.

The enemy has within the last few days displayed a large body of troops in the neighborhood of the fords above Falmouth, but the impression is that this is only a ruse to conceal a retrograde movement.

New York, 4th

The Tribune's Washington despatch says our Government has information that powerful steam rams are now being built on the Thames and the Mersey.

The probabilities now are that no action will be taken at present under the law authorizing the President to grant letters of marque and reprisal, and that none will be granted except in certain contingencies not now regarded as likely to rise. The question of what diplomatic or other proceedings may be necessary to prevent the construction and sailing of vessels of war and blockade runners for the rebels is still undetermined.

Captain Coulter, formerly of the 11th Penn. regiment, who lost his arm at Fredericksburg, has obtained the sanction of the President to raise a brigade composed of men who through disability are unfitted for active duty in the field. These troops to be used for provost, garrison and hospital duty. By this means a large number of able bodied troops now performing this duty will be sent into the field.

The 71st Indiana regiment captured and paroled by the rebels last fall, has been exchanged and will be ordered at once to active service.

The Herald's despatch says the policy of the Government in reference to cotton and other Southern productions was finally agreed upon to-day. The agents of the Government are to give certificates of receipt of such goods as may be voluntarily surrendered by parties in Rebeldom, and special permits to purchase are to be issued to loyal persons. The permit will designate the particular localities in which they are to be used by selling out geographical boundaries of districts whose purchase may be made.

New York, 4th.

An account in the Tribune of the execution in Trenton, N. J., of Charles Lewis, states that his real name is Charles W. Simonds, formerly engaged in a cracker factory in Roxbury, Mass. Twelve years ago he kept a hotel in Hudson, N. Y., where the murderer was committed, and to conceal his crime he burned the building. He was in prison 15 months on the charge of arson and finally acquitted.

Lewis said he was well acquainted with Dr. Burdell and Mrs Cunningham, and was in company with the former on the evening of his murder, and admitted that he knew more of the murder than he would divulge. In his trunk was found a handkerchief, marked Charles W. Ketchum, the name on a shirt found in the attic closet of house No. 32 Bond Street, the day after the Bond Street tragedy.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., 4th.

The U. S. steamship Ascutney was launched from the yard of Geo. W. Jackman, Jr., at noon to day.

CINCINNATI, 5th

The sheriff of Fairfield county, yesterday, arrested Gov. Todd, for kidnapping Dr. Olds, an indictment having been found against him by the Grand Jury of Fairfield county. The Governor was taken before Judge Johnson of the Supreme Court, upon a writ of habeas corpus. He was admitted to bail to appear before the Fairfield Common Pleas Court in June.

A special despatch to the Gazette from Evansville, says the boat Watts capsized yesterday opposite Mount Vernon. Thirteen men were drowned.

Passengers who have arrived at Cairo state that the late movement on Haines' Bluff was a failure. The fleet and transports have returned to Young's Point.

Gen. Grant had succeeded in placing a battery of 84-pounder Parrotts beyond the levee, in a position to easily reach Vicksburg, and was about to commence a bombardment.

ROCHESTER, 4th.

The general term of the Supreme Court for the district of N. Y., decided to-day that the U. S. legal tender notes were constitutional as to debts contracted before the passage by the law making such notes a legal tender—all the four judges concurred.

NEW YORK, 4th.

A letter to the Cincinnati Gazette, gives some particulars of the recent fight near Somerset, Ky. The rebels were overtaken four miles north of Somerset. Gen. Carter, in command of 800 mounted men, had reached Buck Creek when Gen. Gilmore, with his body guard and the 9th Ohio cavalry, reached him, increasing our forces to 1200.

Skirmishing then commenced at Button's Hill, 12 miles from Somerset. The rebels took up a strong position and planted batteries. At about noon an artillery fight began and lasted about an hour and a half, we dismounting three of the rebels guns.

The wings were then ordered to advance, Wolford on the right did so, and was wounded. Runkle, with the 45th and 48th Ohio on the left, charged up the hill under a galling fire, and hurled his column on the enemy at the same time Wolford and Col Gerrard, on the right and centre, charged. The rebels broke in disorder and fled to their horses, under cover of the woods, and pushed on through Somerset in great disorder.

A body of Ashby's and Scott's cavalry was then discovered flanking our position, but after a sharp skirmish they were routed with a loss of 6 prisoners.

The rebels made another stand three miles south of Somerset and were again routed—Night coming on put a end to the conflict. The rebels crossed the river in great confusion.—More than one hundred of them were drowned. A rebel Surgeon, after the fight, under a flag of truce, was searching for Pegram. Gen Burnside and staff are now at Lexington.

WASHINGTON, 4th.

Intelligence received to-day represented all perfectly quiet yesterday in front of our lines.

A rebel scouting party of 12 men was captured a few days ago, at Catletts Station.

Hampton and Fitz Hugh Lee are said to be, by a deserter, at Culpepper with an estimate force of 26,000

——CANDID. A gentleman once called to consult a physician with regard to a rheumatism which caused him much pain. The doctor immediately sat down and wrote him a prescription. As the patient was going away the doctor called him back. "By the way, sir, should my prescription happen to afford you any relief, please let me know, as I am myself suffering from an affection similar to yours, and for the last twenty years have tried in vain to cure it."

——Among the refugees who have lately applied to come within our lines in Virginia, was the wife of Jackson, the murderer of Ellsworth, who said she was destitute and appealed for charity to sustain life.

——John C. Heenan and Tom King the champion of Great Britain, have arranged a prize fight for $10,000, to take place on the 8th of next December.

——Grief knits two hearts in closer bonds than happiness ever can; and common sufferings are far stronger links than common joys.

——The Traveller mentions this funeral coincidence—"Daniel P. Drown of Portsmouth, N. H., who died in this city last week, aged seventy-nine years, was buried at Portsmouth on Friday. It has since been ascertained that Mrs Underwood, a sister of Mr Drown, was buried at Concord, N. H., on the same day, and at the same hour. She was eighty-eight years old—The families of the one knew nothing of the death of the other till after the funeral of each."

——The Fort Dodge Republican states that the fur trade of northwestern Iowa for the season, amounts to $150,000. Of this sum $30,000 was paid out at Fort Dodge. Prices are higher than ever before.

The Duplicity of the Copperheads.

A base purpose is never honorably pursued. The end and the means are always of a piece—After the interviews with "several of the leaders of the Democratic party" Lord Lyons writes, "at the bottom I thought I perceived a desire to put an end to the war, even at the risk of losing the Southern States altogether; but it was plain that it was not thought prudent to avow this desire." The British Minister, with his diplomatic appreciation of motives, had no difficulty in apprehending the real spirit and intent of the party managers closeted with him. Their errand was not at all to discourage foreign intervention; they simply wanted the thing prudently managed—or in other words, they wanted time first, to blind, cajole and circumvent the people. "At the present moment, therefore," says his lordship, "the chiefs of the conservative party call loudly for a more vigorous prosecution of the war, and reproach the Government with slackness, as well as with want of success in its military measures."

That is precisely the truth. These hypocritical wretches sought to consummate their infamous plots for peace by redoubling their clamors for vigorous war. With a heart fully settled upon yielding to treason, they yet affected a sacred passion for an annihilating onset upon traitors. Their special prototype is SEMPRONIUS, whose voice was still for war. "Gods! it is yet the favorite declamation of the schoolboys. The fellow who was so furious to "—rise at once, gird on our swords.

And, at the head of our remaining troops,
Attack the foe, break through the thick array
Of his thronged legions, and charge home upon [them,"] was at that very hour Caesar's secret adherent and conspiring to betray Rome. The "Democratic leaders" have improved the lesson well. In public they have ranted enormously, while in their private soliloquies they never omit to remind themselves it is

"Caesar's favor
That showers down greatness on his friends."

If these persons would plainly own themselves still in the service of the Southern oligarchy, they might, for all the harm they could do, be simply ticketed and dismissed. It is their duplicity that makes them dangerous.

AN INDIA RUBBER WOMAN, VOICE AND ALL.—The Parisians are now admiring the figure of a woman with a larynx formed of a caoutchouc tube, not indeed so sightly as a human larynx, but which so accurately imitates the human mechanism, that it gives out two whole octaves with the tone and pitch of a female voice. In the higher notes the resemblance to the human voice is said to be close enough to deceive any ear. Hitherto all the exhibitions of speaking machines have been either squeaking machines or impostures, but in this one the actual tone of the human voice is reproduced, and the figure is made to sing any song within the compass of two octaves.

Near "Fort Halifax," Maine, in an old wooden building constructed a century ago by the Indians to protect themselves from the whites, and where now rest together both the bones of the poor Indian and the proud pale-face, is found the following inscription upon one of the tombstones:

"Here lies the body of Richard Thomas,
An Inglishman by birth
A whig of '76
By occupation a cooper
Now food for worms.
Like an old rum puncheon marked numbered and shooked.
He will be raised again
and finished by his creator.
He died sept 2d 1824 aged 76"

BOLD ROBBERY. On Wednesday night of last week the house of Mr Samuel Longfellow of this city was entered and robbed of money to the amount of about $1400 in bills on various banks, and two pieces of railroad scrip, of $1000 each, one issued by the city of Gardiner and the other by the town of Brunswick. The thief, according to appearance, entered the front door, which was fastened on the inside by a button over the latch. Holes were bored through the door, the button turned by a piece of wire or some other instrument used by burglars. The closet, in which the trunk containing the money and papers was deposited, was also broken open, the hinges of the trunk cut, and contents rifled. A young man by the name of William Hall, belonging in Bath, who was at the house of Mr Longfellow on the night of the robbery, was arrested by City Marshal Johnson on Thursday, on suspicion of having been concerned in the transaction. Mr. Hall, who appears to be a gentlemanly and intelligent young man, was arraigned before our Municipal Judge Gilman on Tuesday, and after quite a lengthy examination was bound over for his appearance for trial before a higher court, in the sum of 3,000. For want of bail he was committed to jail at Augusta. The evidence against Hall was altogether circumstantial—none of the stolen property having been found in his possession—still the chain of evidence was such as to justify the decision of the Judge on the case. The robbery was evidently perpetrated by some one fully acquainted with the premises, and it is quite probable that an accomplice aided in the villainous work. It is to be hoped that whoever the guilty parties may be, they may be brought to justice.

—Hallowell Gazette.

THE HEROISM OF OUR MEN ON THE MISSISSIPPI. All the letter writers testify that not even on board the Cumberland was there any finer display of heroism than on board the frigate Mississippi, when she was destroyed before Port Hudson. A correspondent says:

"A boatswain's mate, who had both legs, his right arm, and left hand cut off by the explosion of a shell, as he fell on the deck, with his last breath exclaimed, in language worthy of a Lawrence 'Don't give up the ship, lads.'"

The correspondent of the New York Times speaks of the heroic commander as follows

"Of one man there is no harm in being outspoken, and that is the gallant Capt Melancthon Smith. Officers and men all agree in saying that sublimer courage was never exhibited than he showed. 'He has never been known to speak an angry word to anybody,' said one of his officers to me, 'and yet no one is so readily and so cheerfully obeyed.' In the heat of the engagement, with death and destruction hailing around him, there he stood coolly lighting his cigar with flint and steel, and calmly arranging with Lieut. Dewey how to destroy the ship that he found he could no longer save. Capt. Smith, without making any outward parade of religion, is a truly devout man. When the bloody engagement was over, and his officers had collected around him, taking a retrospect of their losses, and commenting upon the almost miraculous nature of their escape, he turned round and said in the hearing of the officer from whom I received the anecdote: 'Gentlemen, is not this enough to make any one a Christian?'"

A LETTER FROM JOHN BRIGHT. Mr Putnam, the publisher, has received the following letter from John Bright, acknowledging the receipt of a set of the "Rebellion Record," and adding:

"London, Feb 27, 1863

* * * Your work is original in its character; it must be far more complete and accurate than any other history that has ever been written, and a hundred years hence, it will be regarded as the most remarkable and one of the most valuable of the works produced on your continent.

I hope, in its conclusion, it will have to tell of the entire uprooting of slavery, and of the perfect restoration of a grand and perfect Union.

You will have observed that in England a great change in opinion is taking place, or an opinion hitherto almost silent is being expressed. In every town great meetings are held to discuss the American question, and invariably resolutions are almost unanimously agreed to in favor of the North and Union, and the abolition of slavery.

I hope we may soon have tidings of the progress of your government in recovering the revolted States, and see some prospect of the great rebellion coming to a close. The divisions in the North create uneasiness here, as being calculated to weaken the President and to give fresh hope to the South. I hope with you they appear less formidable than to us, who look upon them at a distance.

Thanking you most sincerely for your handsome and valuable gift, and for the kind words you have inscribed in the first volume,

I am, with great respect,
Yours, most truly,
JOHN BRIGHT.

G. P. Putnam, Esq, New York, U. S. A."

DEATH FROM THE BITE OF A HORSE. John Simpson, of Quincy, Mass., recently as he was leading his horse (which he had owned for about two years, and which was not considered a vicious animal,) to be shod, the brute suddenly seized him by the arm, and held on, despite the struggle of Mr. S., until a neighbor who saw him, came out of the house and struck the creature several severe blows on the head—the horse as he maintained his terrible grip, plunging and squealing savagely. The arm was so lacerated that mortification supervened, and Mr S died on the following Sunday.

How the South Regards Northern Democrats.

The New York Times calls attention to the manner in which the last Richmond Enquirer that has come North speaks of the "Democratic traitors"—"The democratic party, neutral as it was in principle, false to both sides, and wholly indifferent to the morals of either of the opposing communities, placed itself between, raised the banner of "spoils" and—we all know the rest. The idea of that odious party coming to life again makes us shiver. Its foul breath is malaria, its touch is death. Give us the open foeman—let him be as furious and as greedy as you will. Let our enemy appear as an exterminating Yankee host, we pray, and not as a Democratic Convention. Let him take any shape but that!" All the organs of rebel sentiment abound with similar expressions of loathing. It would be a thousand times less dishonorable for the rebels to surrender to the old flag without terms, when it shall be no longer physically possible to hold out against it, than it would be to consort with these Northern recreants and seek through them to patch up a mock reconciliation in advance.

"The Southern leaders have committed themselves to a desperate venture; and, like all such men, they will never submit until absolutely overpowered and disabled. We may rely upon it, they will fight the men of the North face to face as long as they can stand; and with the same spirit will tread the creeping things of the North under their feet. When they yield, they will yield to fidelity and courage; never to poltroonery or perfidy.

"Walking up Broadway, says the New York Times, you occasionally notice a copperhead breast pin. Mark how shamelessly the creature exposes his crest. Probably you will not see the last of it till the last rebel submits. Black Cockades insulted the public eye up to the flash of the last British gun. We believe they were never thicker than during the last month of the war. The more absolute the impotence, the ranker the impudence—a very common thing in human affairs as everybody knows.

The Rhode Island Election.

The Providence Journal, in giving the glorious result says: "The Republican Union tickets have swept the State. We have carried every county in the State. In the Eastern Congressional District we have carried every town except Newport. We have returns from every town except New Shoreham. James Y. Smith's majority over William C Cozzens is, according to our figures, 3246, and his majority over all is 2944. Thomas A. Jenckes is elected to Congress from the Eastern District by 1716 over Charles S. Bradley, and of 1645 over all. Nathan F. Dixon is elected to Congress from the Western District by a majority of 966 over George H. Browne, and of 924 over all. In the General Assembly, according to our classification, the supporters of Mr Smith have elected 71 members, his opponents 29, and there are six vacancies. In the Senate Mr. Smith's supporters have 20 members, and including the Lieutenant Governor, 21; his opponents 10, and there are two vacancies. In the House his friends have 61 members, his opponents 12, and there are four vacancies. We imagine that there will be no difficulty in understanding the position of Rhode Island after this. She stands by the Government now and always. All honor to our fellow citizens for making so splendid a record.

"We felt in fighting our fight that we were also in part fighting a battle for Connecticut. In the Eastern District at least, we had the same issue before us that is presented in Connecticut. And all the copperheads in the State were opposed to us. They did not dare to fight an open battle here on the State ticket, but aligned themselves with a portion of the Constitutional Union Party. Read in their overwhelming defeat the condemnation which Rhode Island pronounced upon their doctrines. New Hampshire has spoken. Rhode Island has spoken yet more emphatically, and now we ask our sister Connecticut to keep her place in the line, and proclaim in a voice of thunder that New England still stands, as she has done, firmly by the Government in the vigorous prosecution of the war."

What a blow it is to the copperheads, may be inferred from the following prediction of the New York World in the early part of last week, viz—"The election of Hon Wm. C. Cozzens, the conservative candidate for Governor, is universally conceded; the only doubt is as to his majority." The World then proceeds to give an estimate by counties, in which it is predicted that Cozzens would be elected by 1260 majority, and that both congressional districts would be carried on the same ticket!

THE DRAFT. The Chicago Tribune has a special dispatch from Washington, dated March 29th, to the effect that Hon. I. N. Arnold of Illinois had an interview with the Secretary of War in regard to conscription. The action under the law will be first, to return to the army all absentees and deserters; second, the draft will be made first in those States and districts which have failed to furnish their quotas under calls heretofore made; third, such of the States as have furnished more than their proportion of volunteers heretofore under the call will be credited with such excess, and no draft will probably be ordered in such States until the number of troops furnished by the several States shall have been equalized by drafts in those which are behind.

Maine is one of the States which has furnished more than her proportion of volunteers.

There appears to be reason for believing that cotton goods must be lower. Considerable quantities of raw cotton—perhaps enough for the present American demand—are now escaping from the Confederacy into our lines on the Mississippi—and a good deal is going to England through the blockade—while India is pouring forth great quantities. It is reported from Cairo that cotton is coming in so fast on the Mississippi that it will soon be sold for 35 cents per pound. A prominent domestic commission house of New York, made a contract in February for 600 bales of cotton to be delivered at the option of the seller within 60 days, at 88 cents, and last week cancelled the contract by the payment of $34,000.

FERNANDO WOOD. This gentleman disclaims being a Democratic leader, and says he has had no interview with Lord Lyons since the Prince of Wales was in New York. Mr. Wood also publishes a feeble answer to Senator Wilson's letter. He says he shall obey the conscription law although it is unjudicially condemned, but will not give up the privilege of denouncing it.

Yes—he is one of the cowardly leaders who will restrain themselves from overt acts of violence against the execution of the law, but who "will not give up the privilege" of inciting their deluded followers and tools to active opposition, by unremitting lies and misrepresentations addressed to their fears and prejudices.

Greece Still Lives.

New York, April 2.

Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde:

During my stay in this city, I have become acquainted with a modern Greek soldier and poet named Palliano, who has come to this country to volunteer his services in our struggle. He left for Washington last evening to seek a position in our army. He has letters to Secretary Stanton from several of our foreign officials, and will doubtless obtain a favorable hearing. He represents his countrymen as deeply interested in our cause, and says that nothing but distance prevents large numbers of them from volunteering in our service.

Palliano is a man of considerable intelligence, being well versed in history, and speaking with ease the Italian, Spanish, French and English languages. He possesses great activity of body and mind, showing in conversation as well as in his writings that lofty enthusiasm which belonged to his immortal ancestors. His dark eye flashes at the sound of liberty, and burns at such words as King or Emperor. I have already sent specimens of his poetry to the Faculty of Waterville College, one of which is a song upon the Italian Patriot Garibaldi. The following is a version, almost literal, of a few lines which he wrote for me upon a piece of paper in connexion with his autograph. I would send the original Greek, but presume you cannot publish it; and if you could, few would take the pains to translate it:

O noble and mighty
Land of Liberty,
I greet thee!
A volunteer I come
To fight for the Union
Of all thy States!
To pour my blood
In gratitude
I am a Greek from Lemnos,
From Lemnos, sweetly bosomed
In the sea.
My soul, like Greek,
Being free to think,
The tyrant hates!
From my first breath,
Till death!

I can but believe we shall hear more of Palliano in the future. I have no news to write you. We expect to sail very soon.

Yours truly, H. C. MERRIAM

From the Houlton Times.

THE PRICE OF EXEMPTION FROM CONSCRIPTION. The New York Times says the law does not fix three hundred dollars as the sum that any one must pay in order to obtain exemption from the draft. It gives the Secretary of War discretionary power to fix the sum which shall buy exemption in each individual case; but in no case shall over three hundred dollars be demanded. The Secretary may require of a rich man $300 for exemption, and he may let a poor man off—one who deserves exemption for reasons of sickness and helplessness of his family—for the sum of $8, if he will. The language of the law is this:

"That any person drafted and notified to appear as aforesaid, may, on or before the day fixed for his appearance, furnish an acceptable substitute to take his place in the draft, or he may pay to such person as the Secretary of War may authorize to receive it, such sum, not exceeding three hundred dollars, as the Secretary may determine, for the procuration of such substitute."

This is a strange mistake. It would never answer to permit the Secretary of War, or any other man, to attempt a discrimination between one man and another. The law in fact requires that although the Secretary is to fix the amount of commutation money, anywhere below $300, still he must make it uniform whatever it may be. No other rule would do for a moment. The nine words immediately following the above extract from the law, are as follows: "which sum shall be fixed at a uniform rate."

We shall publish the conscription law in full to-morrow.

"IT AM GOD'S WAR." A lady missionary at Beaufort, S. C., reports the following opinion of the war as given by a colored woman ninety years old, who has just been relieved from the house of bondage. "Dis aint de Yankees' war, missus; nor de secesh war—nor de niggers' war; it am God's war and He'll take care de right come, in spite 'em all—dat's so missus." We doubt whether any divine or statesman in the country has better apprehended the true character and scope of the war, or could state them in more clear and forcible language. The whole wonderful story of God's providence in the rebellion—using the wrath of man in secession, and the despised negro as its occasion—is told in these simple words: "It am God's war."

MAIL ROBBERIES. The St Croix Herald has this:

The following despatch was received by the Postmaster of this city yesterday:—

"BANGOR, March 31, 1863. Both lock bags with the entire letter mail were stolen from the coach at Amherst this morning about 3 o'clock. JASON WEEKS, P. M."

We knew some days since of the above robbery—and also that the letter bags going both east and west were stolen at the Amherst station—but it was thought best for the ends of justice to keep the facts from publication as long as possible.

REPORTED HOMICIDE. A son of Gen. Alden Blossom of Turner, who has served in the army, but returned home on account of disability, and was appointed to hunt up deserters, is reported to have been shot. He started for Skowhegan a few days since, and at that place hired a team for the expressed purpose of hunting up a man who had deserted. Being gone longer than he anticipated, the owner of the team started in pursuit of it and found it, but could find nothing of Blossom. From these circumstances arises a story that he was shot by the deserter of whom he was in pursuit.—Press.

☞ We learn that the store of Messrs. W. & T. Cary at East Hampden, was broken open on Friday night, and goods to the amount of $150 stolen. The letters and papers in the post office (kept in the same building) were overhauled, but whether anything of value was obtained therefrom we are unable to state.

FLAX RAISING. The Farmington Chronicle says everybody in that section is talking about raising flax. The country people don't mean to stand the huge price for cotton goods if they can help it. About next winter (says the Chronicle) all the old garrets will be ransacked in search of the long forgotten foot-wheel—its music will come into competition with that of the piano, and the young lady who cannot spin will find herself behind the fashions.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints.—Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam, to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

BANGOR, Oct. 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired in a few years. My customers assure me of their unlimited confidence in the medicine, and I consider it without a superior in the best of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours, BENJ. C. FROST.

BANGOR BREWERY,

No. 108 Broad Street.

THE undersigned has the pleasure of informing the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has, at a very large outlay, established a Brewery for the manufacture of the best brands of Ale. My head brewer, Mr. Williamson, has no superior in the country, in skill and experience, acquired by over fifteen years service in the largest Breweries of London, New York and Boston.

The water used is from the famous Taylor spring and my malt and hops are of the best quality, thus ensuring the fullest flavors and the finest purity.—Believing the public will appreciate this home enterprise, I shall spare no pains to furnish an article which shall meet their entire approbation.

I shall also manufacture a desirable article of light Ale, specially for family use. My intention is to supply the trade, but for the present I shall accommodate the public in such quantities as may be desired.

My Ale is now on draft at the principal hotels and retail shops in this city.

POOR RICHARD'S

EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

READER, are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so? Now you are debtor to them, and if they have not arrested your body and shut it up in the prison of disease, remember they most assuredly will if you do not satisfy their claim (which is a small one) for all the service they render to you continually. They are crying to you for help every blood streak is a voice. Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them. Give them a drink of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning and Night. This is all they ask, and they will positively keep your body out of the prison house of disease. They do not want to lose time in explanations. Try them and prove them. By faithful perseverance, Deafness can be cured and prevented.—Bathe both eyes and ears.

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor.

I, W. H. PRITCHARD, do certify that my wife Esther S., has had Weak Eyes from childhood, caused by measles. One year since a lump appeared on the lash of her eye. It increased to the size of a large pea. Becoming somewhat alarmed about the progress it was making I took my wife to Mrs. M. G. BROWN, at the Exchange. She told me she could remove it, and further strengthen her eyes. Mrs. B. applied her medicine at seven o'clock in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone. We could see no more of it. My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street which she could never do before. She has always had headache when riding in a carriage. Yesterday, when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache. My own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs. Brown. I find them much strengthened. W. H. PRITCHARD, 159 Pine street.

Thousands of certificates might be added. Use POOR RICHARD and throw away your SPECTACLES.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

The Best Mechanical Paper in the World

EIGHTEENTH YEAR.

Volume VIII - - - New Series.

A NEW VOLUME of this popular Journal commences on the first of January. It is published WEEKLY, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its columns.

To the Mechanic and Manufacturer!

No person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of doing "without" the Scientific American. It costs but six cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which can not be found in any other publication.

To the Inventor

The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous, thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany, thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

A pamphlet of instruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new inventions, is furnished free on application.

Messrs. MUNN & Co. have acted as Patent Solicitors for more than seventeen years, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, and they refer to 20,000 patentees for whom they have done business.

No charge is made for examining sketches and models of new inventions and for advising inventors as to their patentability.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights and Farmers,

The Scientific American will be found a most useful Journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and mill owners will be found in the Scientific American which information they can not possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American, most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

TERMS

To mail subscribers, Three Dollars a year, or One Dollar for four months. The volumes commence on the first of January and July. Specimen copies will be sent gratis to any part of the country.

Western and Canadian money or Post-office stamps taken at par for subscriptions. Canadian subscribers will please remit twenty five cents extra on each year's subscription to prepay postage.

HUNNEWELL'S

[illegible]

BASES its claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity, and freedom from every component which in any way places restraint on its use Day or Night, by Old or Young, but to find the real secret of its true character and results, to which thousands can testify, by its being made the Pocket, Bedside or Nursery Companion of all, and the enemy to all Throat and Lung Complaints, by using it every hour, if necessary, or when there is the least tickling in the Throat, or disposition to Cough. By such freedom of use it and all such, as when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION!

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable, as it goes to the foundation, clears the Throat, and prevents the prostration which follows great exertion.

As a Soothing Syrup its simplicity calls for special attention, as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom.

[illegible]

This Preparation by its splendid results has shown the great necessity of a true Nervous and Spasmodic Remedy which goes to its work on all such complaints, completely relieving the pains and leaving no stain of debility behind.

As most complaints of this nature proceed from inward causes, they are reached only through the stomach and in most of them, time and money is wasted by the use of Liniments and Lotions.

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found worthy the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

Nervous Head Ache,

also the chief of all causes of disease and insanity,

LOSS OF SLEEP!

To the Sleepless Invalid it gives the most refreshing sleep.

To Females, suffering the pains of Monthly Menstruation, it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed. This is of great importance, as from this scourge date most, if not all, wrecks to the Nervous System, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy.

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain, by diluting with milk and rubbing the Gums. When very severe give it in 5 to 10 drop doses in milk, and is a perfect relief.

HUNNEWELL'S

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington (under the Act of 1837)

76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able beyond question to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY
